

E-News

July 2015

Amended Rule 1.15(i): Unidentified Funds in the IOLTA Trust Account

Beginning July 1, 2015, a lawyer who discovers unidentified funds in the IOLTA account (i.e., funds that cannot be documented as belonging to an identifiable client or third party, or to the lawyer or law firm) must follow new requirements under Rule 1.15(i) and remit unidentified funds to the Lawyers Trust Fund of Illinois.

Read More

Pro Hac Vice Admission Rule Has Changed

Illinois Supreme Court Rule 707 was amended in July 2013 and out-of-state attorneys are no longer required to file a motion or order in court to appear but must follow the procedure set forth in Rule 707.

Read More